

35 school buses vandalized; some Rochester students were picked up late

Meaghan M. McDermott

Rochester Democrat and Chronicle USA TODAY NETWORK

Some students in the Rochester City School District were picked up late on Monday morning after vandals struck the First Student bus facility on Main Street over the weekend.

According to the district, approximately 35 buses were targeted. Vandals broke windows and discharged fire extinguishers inside the vehicles.

Afternoon dismissal was not affected.

The district is assisting the Rochester Police Department and First Student with their investigations.

MCDERMOT@Gannett.com

Some First Student buses in the bus garage on East Main Street in Rochester were damaged by vandalism over the weekend. TINA MACINTYRE-YEE/ROCHESTER DEMOCRAT AND CHRONICLE

Some First Student buses in the bus garage on East Main Street in Rochester were damaged by vandalism over the weekend. TINA MACINTYRE-YEE/ROCHESTER DEMOCRAT AND CHRONICLE

