Marques Williams, 26, has been employed by the Board of Cooperative Educational Services as a "one-to-one teaching aide" since November, according to a statement from BOCES spokesman John Walker.

Williams, a city resident, was suspended without pay. He is free on electronic monitoring pending a federal trial.

"We have been informed by authorities that, at this time, there is no information to indicate that these allegations involve any Monroe #1 BOCES students," Walker said in the statement.
